ARRIVAL, ASSEMBLY, AND LINE-UP
Grady Gammage Memorial Auditorium will open at 10 a.m. for graduates and guests. All graduates must arrive no later than 10 a.m. to prepare for line-up. Guests will enter the auditorium on the box office side and the sunset side where guest tickets are provided on a first come first serve basis. Graduates will enter from the north docking doors (down the drive ramp; see map below for Graduate Entrance), check-in at the registration table, and assemble in the waiting area.

CONVOCATION CEREMONY
The Ceremony will begin promptly at 11 a.m. with a formal processional. The ceremony will last approximately 90 minutes. During the processional, Convocation staff/volunteers will guide graduates across the stage to the seating area. Following the ceremony, we ask that guests remain seated until all graduates have left the floor.

TICKETS
Due to the location, this is a ticketed event. Seating is free of charge and a ticket is required for each guest (including children) attending the ceremony. Guests can pick-up tickets on the day of Convocation. There will be two ticket distribution tables, one on the Gammage box office side and one on the sunset side.

ENHANCED SCREENING PROCEDURES AND CLEAR BAG POLICY
There is a clear bag policy for all university commencement and convocation ceremonies to enhance public safety and make venue access more efficient. All attendees may bring in one (1) clear bag no larger than 12” x 6” x 12” or a 1-gallon plastic storage bag. There is a limit to one clear bag per person, along with a small clutch or purse no larger than 4.5” x 6.5” for privacy. Please refer to the link for the section on "Enhanced Screening Procedures and Bag
ATTIRE
All graduates must wear an official ASU cap, gown and tassels as required by the University for all commencement and convocation ceremonies. Wear your tassel to the left side for convocation. Master and doctoral level graduates are required to wear a hood. These items can be purchased at the ASU Bookstore. Traditional attire may be worn however the cap and gown must be worn at all times. More information can be found using the following link, https://graduation.asu.edu/graduates/dressing.

RECOGNITION
The 'Presentation of Graduates' is the most important part of the ceremony. Graduates will walk across the stage to receive their recognition. We ask that graduates maintain the same position in the line-up, processional, and while seated during the ceremony. As a special recognition and honor, you will receive a traditional graduation Pendleton stole.

PARKING
Free parking is available in Lot 3 surrounding Gammage Auditorium. Graduates or guests who require closer access may be dropped off at the front entrance of ASU Gammage.

- Parking is not allowed in residence hall lots, reserved stalls and other restricted locations where special permits are required, including red, green and yellow curbs.
- Regular fees must be paid at meters and visitor lots, including the visitor parking areas within the university.
- Parking and Transit Service representatives will be on hand to provide motorist assistance for dead batteries and lockouts. Please call 480.965.0641 for service.

PHOTOGRAPHS
GradImages is the professional photography service used at Convocation. Remember to follow instructions given by the photographer in order to keep the program flowing. GradImages will contact graduates with information on the purchase of photos.

UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT
Undergraduate commencement: 9 a.m.
Graduate Commencement: 1:30 p.m.

CAP & GOWN DONATIONS
Graduates may donate caps and gowns after the convocation for future graduates to use. Drop them off at the American Indian Student Support Services office any time after the ceremony and throughout the year. This is not mandatory but a great way to give back to fellow peers who may be unable to purchase graduation attire.
